

Alex Khvatsky

Alexanders Jewelers

OWNER: Alex Khvatsky

THE SHOP: Alexanders Jewelers, the jeweler of the Short North, is more than a typical jewelry store. Passion is the key that drives Alexander and his team to provide exceptional customer service to all of their clients. Always exposing new, upcoming jewelry designers to a conservative Columbus market.

THE STORY: For more than 14 years, Alexanders Jewelers has been one of the most trusted names in luxury jewelry and timepieces in Central Ohio. Founded by Alexander Khvatsky, Alexanders Jewelers has made its way through Central Ohio from Easton to the Short North, where it firmly planted its roots as The Jeweler of The Short North.

689 N. High St., Short North; 614-233-6666; alexandersjewelersofohio.com

GIFT IDEAS

▲ Nialaya-designed stingray bracelet with vintage, silver detailed clasp, $150

▲ Sophia By Design ring, made in Italy, with Egyptian blue lapis and diamonds, $1,677

▲ Pre-owned Rolex Oyster Perpetual Datejust II in 18K yellow gold and stainless steel, $8,900

GEMS TO KNOW

- ① Alexanders is one of the largest pre-owned luxury watch dealers in the U.S., specializing in Rolex, IWC, Patek, Breitling and more.
- ② The store has a diverse designer jewelry selection with brands from all over the globe, including Konstantino, which is entirely crafted in Greece.
- ③ Alexanders has a master goldsmith on staff for consultations; he also makes incredible custom pieces combining Old World craftsmanship with modern technology.
- ④ Alexanders has one of the most extensive men's wedding band selections in Central Ohio. Materials range from platinum and gold to meteorite and wood.
- ⑤ The store specializes in new, designer jewelry, but its estate selection has many pieces from Cartier, Tiffany, Chanel, Hermes, Dior, Van Cleef and more.